TRANSPORTATION

One of the countless things that is great about The Woodlands is you can visit without renting a car. After shuttling from the airport or hopping into an Uber, you can leave the driving to us or stay active by walking or biking the area.

The Woodlands Waterway Trolley provides free transportation along a 4.1-mile route connecting The Woodlands Mall, Market Street, The Woodlands Waterway and Hughes Landing. A perfectly planned route allows visitors the option to ride daily on a vintage style trolley. This free transit system runs through our main destinations and can accommodate up to 35 passengers at a time.

The Woodlands is conveniently located near two major airports. George Bush International Airport (IAH) is a quick 30 minutes away via the Hardy Toll Road. Travelers landing at William P. Hobby Airport (HOU) can expect about 45 minutes to an hour from baggage claim to hotel check-ins.

ACCOMODATIONS

When you book a room in The Woodlands visitors can rest easy knowing that outstanding amenities are available regardless of where they stay.

With more than 2,200 rooms available in 14 hotel properties, guests are sure to find the perfect hotel to fit their needs, whether it be a full-service spa, golfing or a stadium-sized lazy river a Woodlands getaway provides it all.

ENTERTAINMENT

Consistently ranked one of the Top 10 Outdoor Amphitheaters in the world, The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion provides a selection of contemporary artists from April through September each year. From Jack Johnson to Dave Matthews Band and even Pentatonix, each concert season brings a promise of a diverse lineup of talent.

The Pavilion is also an avid supporter of the arts, dedicated to inspiring children to appreciate music. In the midst of their regular concert season, The Pavilion has a Performing Arts schedule, which includes performances by the Houston Ballet, Houston Grand Opera and Houston Symphony. All Performing Arts concerts and activities are free admission for lawn and mezzanine seating.

MUSEUM / ARTS

Newly opened in the spring of 2018, Glade Cultural Center is a museum and art gallery nestled against a stunning tree lined lake. This unique fine arts gallery hosts events and workshops.

Glade is also the permanent host for a collection by world-renowned artist David Adickes. Along with Adickes' work, there are also rotating contemporary exhibits from local and international artists as well as traveling exhibits from other galleries.

WWW.GLADECULTURALCENTER.COM

Creating opportunities to educate, empower and excite children, The Woodlands Children's Museum is a cooperative learning environment that provides children with multiethnic and multicultural experiences.

The museum gives children a fun atmosphere to interact with one another through play and a sense of wonder and discovery.

WWW.WOODLANDSCHILDRENSMUSEUM.ORG

Each April, The Woodlands Waterway transforms into an outdoor art gallery featuring talent from over 200-plus artists from various countries. The Woodlands Waterway Arts Festival is a signature event for The Woodlands and is among the top art festivals in the country. Produced by The Woodlands Arts Council, a goal of the council is to promote public art such as their Art Bench Project - which commissions and installs functional art benches along The Waterway.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

Whether you're seeking a relaxing vacation, or seeking a thrill that has you venturing outdoors, The Woodlands has plenty of options.

ON THE WATER

Kayak and paddle board rentals are available at both the Riva Row and Lakes Edge Boat Houses. Take in the sights and sounds of nature via The Woodlands Waterway or Lake Woodlands. During select weekends, Riva Row offers paddle board yoga led by an instructor during a two hour lesson on a floating studio for a vinyasa flow.

TIME FORE FUN

Located at The Woodlands Resort, Panther Trails is one of our signature golf courses and for good reason, this 18-hole course offers rolling greens with tall Carolina Pine trees lining each hole. The Woodlands is also home to several tournament courses including The Woodlands Country Club Tournament Course, which hosts the Insperity Invitational each spring.

HIKE AND BIKE

Venture outdoors to The George Mitchell Nature Preserve, a 1,700 acre nature preserve nestled in the back of The Woodlands. This naturally forested area provides an escape from our commercial district and is perfect for a shaded hiking or dirt bike experience.

SPORTING VENUES

The climate in The Woodlands makes planning outdoor sporting events year-round easy. With three sports complexes available for group reservations, local facilities, in addition to their proximity to hotels and entertainment make hosting various sporting tournaments in The Woodlands the perfect choice.

Welcome to The Woodlands

A 28,000-acre escape from the everyday. Whether you're coming here on business or for leisure, you'll find an incredible array of things to see, do and enjoy.

Named by Travel + Leisure as one of America's "Coolest Suburbs Worth a Visit," The Woodlands offers vacationing families and business travelers more than eleven million square feet of shopping, dining and entertainment, concerts under the stars, nightlife, golf, nature trails and more...it's all part of a getaway to The Woodlands, just 30 minutes north of downtown Houston.

The Woodlands presents a unique combination of shopping for visitors, featuring over 70 boutique shops in a walkable, Main Street-style setting within Market Street as well as iconic retailers inside The Woodlands Mall. Perhaps that's why the readers of Southern Living Magazine voted the area as "One of America's Best Shopping Destinations."

Be sure to check out the schedule at The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion. This singular venue is consistently ranked in the Top 10 Outdoor Amphitheaters in the World by Pollstar magazine, plays host to the world's top performers, and is the summer home for the Houston Symphony.

The Woodlands also offers dining options to suit any occasion and budget. Dine al fresco along The Woodlands Waterway or enjoy cuisine from award-winning chefs in one of the area's many fine-dining spots, fun eateries or cozy cafes and let the wonders of this masterfully planned community unfold before you.

Hughes Landing

Nestled between Town Center and Research Forest you'll find Hughes Landing, a convenient place to check out live music and enjoy happy hour. This pedestrian-friendly boulevard is home to a variety of premier dining options on Restaurant Row and is within close proximity to Northshore Park, the Embassy Suites and picturesque views of Lake Woodlands.

Attractions

Northshore Park – Grab your family, friends and a blanket and enjoy a picnic and free concerts at Northshore Park between late spring and early fall each year. Northshore Park also hosts the swim start of the always anticipated Memorial Hermann Ironman Texas triathlon competition every spring.

Hughes Landing Bandstand – Yet another good option if you are looking for an outdoor concert venue. Located behind Restaurant Row in Hughes Landing, you can always find events open to the public with a 100% chance of enjoying yourself.

The Bald Eagle – Since 1999, on an undeveloped piece of land east of Hughes Landing's Restaurant Row, bald eagles have declared The Woodlands home. In the tree tops a large nest can be seen from Lake Front Circle Drive and on occasion, a lucky birdwatcher will see the creatures take flight.

Dining

Hughes Landing is home to some of the best patios in town. Del Frisco's Grille offers the largest on Restaurant Row and is the perfect place to watch the sun set over the lake and sip on their signature VIP Martini, made with Svedka Clementine Vodka infused with fresh Hawaiian Pineapple. For those looking to impress, Fogo de Chão, a Brazilian-style steakhouse will leave diners with an unforgettable experience and a full stomach. Or grab a picnic for you and the family at Whole Foods to enjoy during one of the premier events at Northshore Park.

Along the Waterway

Traveling down the Waterway District is a great chance to experience a variety of restaurants, shops, entertainment venues and luscious outdoor green spaces. Find respite from the summer heat with a network of walkways that might surprise you with a splash or a fountain. You'll also find all kinds of options for entertainment, from theaters to music venues, and even cultural exhibits like the Waterway Art Bench Project.

Attractions

Fountains at Waterway Square – This urban courtyard serves as a colorful display and centerpiece of The Woodlands. Watch exciting water installations perform synchronized choreography representing earth, wind and sound in a way that welcomes interaction. Be sure to pack the kids' swimsuits to enjoy the interactive water feature for a cool time.

Live Music at Waterway Square – Take advantage of live concerts with vendors, children's activities, strolling entertainers, fireworks and more at each featured event. While the events are free, lineups are impressive.

Koi Pond – Found on the south side of The Waterway, the 60,000 gallon Koi Pond was designed to be a place for quiet contemplation and meditation, where visitors can reconnect with nature. A variety of exotic plantings enhance the garden which surrounds thirty-three Koi, considered living artwork.

Town Green Park – What makes this park a standout is its kid-inspired atmosphere including a literary labyrinth with life-size Aesop's Fables, and a children's amphitheater ideal for anyone with an imagination. Town Green Park is also home to popular events including: Red, Hot & Blue 4th of July activities and The Waterway Arts Festival.

Dining

Waterway Square District is known for its variety of dining experiences, from Hubbell and Hudson Bistro, a progressive concept with top-quality ingredients from Executive Chef Austin Simmons, to the divine tres leches and Latin flavor at Churrascos. Or pull up a chair at The Goose's Acre Irish Pub whose 125+ year old bar was shipped over the Atlantic Ocean from Ireland. And in the mix of it all, CURRENT features a demonstration kitchen with a chef's table that is sure to delight.

Market Street

Bring your good taste to Market Street in The Woodlands and enjoy a shopper's paradise. It's an outdoor mall featuring over 70 different retailers, restaurants and a popular boutique-style hotel, Hyatt Centric. The Woodlands Trolley is free and makes routine stops around Market Street to ensure you are always where you need to be.

Attractions

Central Park – Traveling on business? On your "open night," head to Market Street's Central Park for a free concert most Thursday nights throughout the year. Or bring your family with you in November for the Market Street in Lights Holiday Tree Lighting where you can count down to a three-minute light show choreographed to holiday favorites.

Cinemark – The best seat in the house is in this boutique-style movie theater, open late and most holidays. Here's where you'll find art and indie films as well as special screenings of your favorite shows or classic movies to make for one fun date night.

Sunday Fancy Car Show – Whatever car fulfills your James Bond dreams for speed, you can find it here. Explore a world of horsepower and sit in cars that go from 0 to 60 in 3 seconds or less.

Art Show – Amateur and professional artists alike are invited to showcase their paintings, photography, jewelry, metal works, sculptures, digital art, mixed media and other works of art at Market Street's Fall and Spring Fine Arts Show.

Shopping

From finding the right gift to seeking the latest fashions, Market Street is your avenue to indulge. Make it a girl's night out browsing stores like Tiffany & Co., Kendra Scott, Lululemon, J.Crew, Vineyard Vines and Trina Turk to name a few.

Dining

After an afternoon of shopping or before a concert at The Pavilion, be sure to pop into one of Market Street's notable dining options: the Maytag bleu cheese potato chips at Jasper's are the perfect happy hour treat, or take in a "wine flight" at CRU: A Wine Bar. Do not leave the square without noshing on Tommy Bahama's famous Pineapple Crème Brûlée — you can thank us later. Still hungry? Stop into The Counter and try their namesake, The Official Counter Burger or order Schilleci's famous bread pudding and forget about the calories!

The Woodlands Mall

The Woodlands Mall is a two-story enclosed shopping mall offering more than 170 stores and retail outlets under one roof. The mall has continuously updated retail variety for its consumers. Several popular restaurants can be found here for great dining as well.

Shopping

Explore the brands you love at the best shopping mall in the greater Houston area. Visit The Woodlands Mall for shopping in stores like Nordstrom, Michael Kors, Anthropologie, Microsoft and Williams-Sonoma to name a few. Don't forget to stop on the second floor for a ride on the famous carousel.

Dining

After you've shopped 'til you dropped, find refuge at one of the many dining establishments in and around The Woodlands Mall. You don't even have to leave Nordstrom to grab a bite; check out Bazille, a made-from-scratch cooking concept featuring a menu that is bold in flavor. Try Brio Tuscan Grille for Italian like you've never seen it. Sit on the patio to enjoy the twinkling lights and Waterway views. If you're in the mood for seafood, try one of Landry's classic dishes featuring coastal favorites.

Around The Woodlands

While in The Woodlands, be sure to venture behind the trees and explore all there is to offer amongst this master-planned community. You will find a full-service Resort with a refreshing lazy river, interactive exhibits and imaginative play at The Woodlands Children's Museum, outdoor art sculptures and more than 200 miles of hike-and-bike trails — all of which complete The Woodlands experience.

Dining

You don't have to be a guest at The Woodlands Resort to enjoy the perfect cut at Robard's Steakhouse; with an in-house butchery, smokehouse and signature dry-aging techniques, Robard's preserves the best qualities of beef. While in Creekside, check out Fielding's Local Kitchen and their menu featuring local ingredients, or Levure Bakery & Patisserie housing traditional French provisions with a contemporary twist, baked fresh daily with organic ingredients and care.

Events

For the fastest way to fall in love with The Woodlands, one visit to The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion will do the trick. Or find a festival at one of the many parks within the community. The Woodlands' Independence Day celebration is almost as big as the fireworks that light up the sky with its full day of events. Come once and you will be back for more.

The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion

The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion is consistently ranked as one of the Top 10 Outdoor Amphitheaters in the World by Pollstar magazine and is also one of the most popular performing arts venues in the world. Many well-known artists have performed here over the years, including Bruce Springsteen, Elton John, Lana Del Rey, John Legend, Dave Matthews Band and many more. The Pavilion is the summer home of the Houston Symphony, the home away from home for the Houston Ballet and a presenting venue for the Houston Grand Opera. With this kind of tenure, any seat is the best seat in the house. Be sure to check out the newly opened House of Blues Lounge and enjoy a cool place to hang out before the big show.

Getting Here & Around

AIRPORTS:

One of the many convenient things about visiting The Woodlands is its proximity to major airports. Take the Hardy Toll Road for the fastest route to George Bush Intercontinental Airport and be there in 30 minutes. Or, if you're heading to William P. Hobby Airport, the highway will get you there in well under an hour.

THE WOODLANDS TROLLEYS:

The Woodlands Trolley system provides free transportation throughout town with stops at Market Street, Hughes Landing, The Woodlands Mall, Town Green Park, Waterway Square and The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion. The nearly 5-mile route offers easy access to dining, shopping, outdoor recreation, and hotel accommodations.

Download The Ride Systems app for a completely stress-free transportation experience. The app provides estimated arrival times, locations, service alerts and more. Note: there is no trolley service on Thanksgiving, Christmas or New Year's Day.

MOBIKE:

Explore over 200 miles of bike trails or easily navigate The Woodlands' shopping, dining and entertainment areas with Mobike. These custom-designed solar-powered bikes are equipped with GPS, which makes them easy to locate by using the Mobike app.
